PRESS RELEASE

TRADEWIND AVIATION ADDS YET ANOTHER PILATUS TO ITS GROWING CHARTER FLEET

Largest On-Demand Pilatus Fleet Serving the Northeast and Caribbean

Oxford, Connecticut and San Juan, PR – June 20th 2011

Tradewind Aviation is pleased to announce the addition of a fourth Pilatus PC-12 to its extensive charter aircraft fleet. The new aircraft features an eight seat executive interior with Pilatus' signature fully enclosed lavatory. The PC-12's huge cargo door facilitates the loading of oversized baggage, including skis, bicycles and golf clubs.

The PC-12 features state-of-the-art avionics for the pilots, including Garmin GPS/Communication radios, TCAS, EGPWS, Stormscope, dual 5" EFIS displays, weather data uplink, and HF radio.

"We are thrilled to be offering significantly more charter capacity in our most popular charter aircraft." Explains Eric Zipkin, President of Tradewind Aviation. "The single-engine turboprop is rapidly becoming the aircraft of choice in the charter market. Passengers appreciate the PC-12's large cabin and superior amenities. Its low operating costs allow us to price the aircraft much more competitively than a comparable multi-engine aircraft without any compromise in passenger safety."
